PRESIDENT TAFT WAXES POETICAL

Compares Mississippi River to a Beautiful Woman.

INSPIRED BY PRETTY GIRLS

Chief Executive Talks About the Charm of Life in the Old South and Especially of Old Natchez—Beauties of Natchez Pelt Him With Flowers.
Visits the Grave of Famous Southern Orator.

Bayou Sara, La., Oct. 30.—Inspired by the pretty girls of Natchez who with flutterings and flowers flocked the amphitheater on the hill to see and hear him, President Taft waxed poetic and compared the Mississippi river to "a beautiful and powerful woman."

Upon the bluff overlooking the river speaker's stand had been erected at right angles to it, on right and left, were boxes which, when the president entered, were filled with the bouquets of the city bewitchingly attired, who smiled their sweetest on him and made him captive on the imp. The rostrum jutted far out that he stood in the heart of the strong when he spoke.

He talked about the charm of life in the old South, and especially of old Natchez under the hill, of which the late Secretary Hay's most famous speech made mention. Then the president tried to be practical and reminded his audience that it was impossible to live on poetry and memory. But on he was twanging his lyre again.
The president said his one ambition was to more strongly unite the North and South.

Pelted Him With Flowers.

The pretty girls split their dainty dresses applauding—their white teeth stained through their smile—they pelted him with flowers. Natchez took the stigma of commonplace from a series of cross the continent receptions and marked a garden spot the president's long trip.

He got there a full three hours behind his scheduled time, and Natchez, live and smiling, admitted that a display had never been seen on the heights when the president reached the city. The president landed. All the residents were on hand. The fleet foregathered Vicksburg over night.

If the sight from the bluffs was pretty, however, the sight on the bluffs, viewed from the Oleander, was better still. For more than a mile the heights were lined by cheering men, women and children, who waved flags and handkerchiefs as the president walked ashore and delivered himself over to the local committee.

A motor ride through the city followed when the heights had been viewed and his first act after bowing his acknowledgements to the cheering crowds was to be speeded out to the most eloquent orators that the South ever gave to the United States Senate.

Waitresses Injured in Runaway.

Franktown, S. D., Oct. 30.—A buggy which was seated nine waitresses from the Portland was upset by the driver becoming frightened by an automobile. Pauline Howard was seriously injured and all received severe bruises.

MINNESOTA'S BUSHEL TAX

Working Out Just the Opposite of What Was Expected.

St. Paul, Oct. 30.—The bushel tax, which was the subject of a great deal of criticism after the legislature adjourned, apparently is working out just the opposite of what was expected, and instead of increasing the tax on country elevators and city elevators as well, it has greatly reduced the taxes these institutions have to pay. The reports from the assessors to the state tax commission, which are almost complete, show that the total tax from all counties will amount to $34,586, which is only a little more than Hennepin county alone paid under the old ad valorem system.

A member of the tax commission said that the reason the total of the tax was so small, when it had been attacked because of the heavy burden it would lay on small elevators, was that the tax rate was changed. The original bill provided a tax of one-quarter cent per bushel on wheat and flax and one-eighth cent on other grains. But in the committee or elsewhere the word "cent" was changed to "mill." Had not this change been made, the tax would have been ten times as large as it is.

Of the total tax, about 60 per cent is paid by the terminal elevators, Hennepin paying $13,142 and St. Louis county $8,417. Ramsey county's tax is only $183.

JEFFRIES TO FIGHT NEGRO CHAMPION

Pugilists Finally Sign Articles of Agreement.

New York, Oct. 29.—Jack Johnson and James J. Jeffries—for the negro insisted that as present champion his name should go first—signed articles in New York binding them to fight forty-five or more rounds to a finish not later than July 5, 1910, before the club offering the best financial inducement, the winner to take a side bet of $10,000 and 75 per cent of the purse, the loser to take 25 per cent.

The preliminary discussion was scheduled for 3 o'clock in the banquet hall of the Hotel Albany. Jeffries and his manager were punctual to the minute, but Johnson eluded his way diffi-dently through the crowd ten minutes late. At the table, as the men took their places, sat Jeffries, with Bob Vernon at his left and Sam Berger, his manager, at his right; George Little, Johnson's manager; Johnson, George Considine, "Honest John" Kelly, Sam Harris, Sam Nelson, Bob Murphy and other well known sporting men.

It was agreed without dispute that the men would box for the "heavyweight championship of the world." Berger then suggested that the fight go to the club making the highest responsible bid within the next thirty days. Little agreed, but Johnson, shaking his head dubiously, asked that each bid be accompanied by a $5,000 forfeit as a guarantee of good faith.
Jeffries nodded and Berger gave his assent.

All bids must be submitted on Dec.
1, to be opened on that date at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the Hotel Albany, bids to be accompanied by a certified check for $5,000, as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the club.

The representative of each and every club, person or organization making a bid for the contest must be on the ground.

The referee is to be selected at the time of opening the bids for the match.

The contest shall be under straight Marquis of Queensberry rules and with five-ounce gloves.

The final stakeholder and forfeit holder is to be selected when the club bid is selected.

That Settled Him.

"My dear," she said, "I want you to promise me that you'll never go up in one of those airships."

"Why, I?"

"No hedging," she said. "You must promise."

"Are you afraid I'll be killed?" he asked.

"Not at all. What troubles me is this: As matters stand now, you seem possessed with the idea that you own the earth, and if ever you rise to where you think the moon is your particular property there'll be no such thing as living under the same roof with you."

And then he kicked the sleeping cat and slammed the door as he went out

CLAIMED SHE WAS TOO ILL

Mrs. Arbogast Refused to Discuss Crime With Officer.

DETECTIVES ON THE STAND

Principal Witnesses in the Murder Trial at St. Paul—One of Them Says the Accused Woman Did Not Exhibit Any Symptoms of Pain From Her Burns Until He Asked Her Questions Regarding Her Husband's Slayer.

St. Paul, Oct. 30.—The testimony of Detective Michael Sweeney at the trial of Mrs. Arbogast for the murder of her husband, May 13, showed that the accused woman asserted she was too ill to talk when pressed for information by the officers after the discovery of the crime.

Detective Sweeney was one of the officers who visited Mrs. Arbogast in her room the forenoon after the crime.
He swore on the witness stand that the first five minutes he was talking with her she did not exhibit any symptoms of pain from the burns she had sustained; when he pressed her for information that might lead to the discovery of the murderer she became uneasy and said she was in too much agony to talk any more.

Sweeney and Daly are the two detectives who have had charge of the case for the state, and their evidence will require much explanation by the counsel for the defense. The two detectives were on the scene of the crime a few hours after the firemen and collected a pile of blood-stained and half-burned women's clothing in the Arbogast bathroom. The garments were exhibited in court and identified as having come from the house of tragedy.

Supposed to Belong to Widow.

There were two articles of woman's apparel, a polka-dot blue calico wrapper and a white corset cover, that were found in the bathroom, badly charred and burned. They are supposed to belong to Mrs. Arbogast.

How the wrapper came to be burned that morning is one of the mysteries of the case, because neither Mrs. Arbogast nor her daughters, according to the testimony, had anything but night clothes on until after the fire had been extinguished.

In her brief statement to the detectives the morning of the murder, Mrs. Arbogast said she was in the bathroom when she heard of the fire.
If she made any mention of the manner in which she received the burns it did not come out in the testimony.

Detective Daly told of encountering Lawrence Ulmer in the hallway upstairs and taking him along for guidance in the search for the axe.
At this point Mr. McLaughlin, attorney for Mrs. Arbogast, offered a new theory about the red stains on the axe when he tried to connect them with some strawberry preserves that had been stored in the cellar. Ulmer testified that he found the axe over a broken wine bottle, but the questions of Mrs. Arbogast's attorney indicated that it was a broken preserve bottle and that the juice had caused spots on the axe which appeared like blood. The detective, however, said he had not noticed any preserve jars in the cellar that day.

HEAVY TRAFFIC ON LAKES

Close of Navigation May See Tonnage Equal Banner Year.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Traffic on the Great Lakes is maintaining its high average, according to figures of the volume of domestic trade from lake ports during last month. The bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor announced that the traffic amounted to 12,527,855 net tons, as compared with 9,458,655 tons in September of last year and 11,137,927 net tons during the same month in the year preceding.

There is a good prospect that the close of the season of navigation on the lakes will see a total merchandise tonnage equal to that shipped during the banner year of 1907.

A not-worthy increase in unclassified freight, including packages, was a feature of the month, indicating that this business is being diverted from the railroad and express companies.

Charles C. Dickinson Hurt.

New York, Oct. 30.—Charles C.
Dickinson, who is president of the Carnegie Trust company and is an officer and director in financial and railroad companies, was thrown from his saddle horse in Central park and seriously injured. Mr. Dickinson is suffering from concussion of the brain and his condition is grave.

WITTEN REPLIES TO LOUIS W. HILL

Can Give Names of Land Seek- ers Who Used Hill Road.

Aberdeen, S. D., Oct. 30.—Judge James W. Witten, superintendent of the government land openings, said he could furnish Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern railroad, the name, address, height, weight and signature, alphabetically arranged, of every man, woman and child who had ridden over the Hill lines to register, if President Hill really wanted to refund them their car fare.

This was Judge Witten's answer to Mr. Hill's address at the dry farming congress at Billings, Mont., where the head of the Great Northern called the land openings a swindle, because it brought far from their homes and at a great expense for railroad fare people who could least afford it just to take a chance in a lottery. Mr. Hill said the Great Northern had received its portion, but "would rather give it back to the people, if we knew where they were."

Judge Witten said that of the 24,137 persons who registered at Kalispell the Great Northern was the only railroad which carried them there.

Judge Witten said it was not true that 300,000 people used the railroads at an expense of $12,000,000 to register. He said that less than 60,000 came any considerable distance to register.

LAND DRAWING IS ENDED

Little Interest Manifested on the Last Day.

Aberdeen, S. D., Oct. 30.—With the reading of the name of Cero Corrine, Clark City, Ia., as No. 29,060, one of the greatest land drawings in the history of the interior department came to an end in record time.

So little interest was manifested at the end that less than a score of men and one lone woman were present, disappointed to the last. Ten thousand of them will get claims and when any of the first 10,000 fail to qualify eligibles may have their places.

The next land to be thrown open to settlement will be in Meyer county, South Dakota.

RANCHER BURNED TO DEATH

North Dakota Man Meets a Terrible Fate.

Dickinson, N. D., Oct. 30.—Trapped in a chariot of fire, rushed by unchecked horses across the North Dakota prairie, Patrick Keogh, former railroad operator, now ranching with his sons north of here on Knife river, was torn from his flaming wagon by Roger Didebeck, a mail carrier, after a chase of miles, only to die in agony in a ranch house.

In an old high board farm wagon, bedded with hay and tied together with bits of barbed wire, Keogh left his ranch house for Manning, county seat of Dunn county, north of Knife river.

Roger Didebeck, mail carrier of Dickinson, left here about the same time, and was drawing near Knife river when Keogh's horses dashed by him with the wagon on fire.

Didebeck pursued the runaway horses until they jumped into the river. Di-beck found the wagon incinerated and Keogh burned unconscious, fastened by the foot to a tangle of wire in the bottom of the wagon. He was carried to the nearest ranch house, where he died.

Keogh left home smoking a pipe, and probably fell asleep on the hay in the wagon bottom, which the pipe later ignited.

BURNED TO DEATH IN BARN

Three Children Playing With Matches Set Building Afire.

Lehigh, Kan., Oct. 30.—Three children of Henry Kissner, while playing with matches in their father's barn set fire to the building and were burned to death. The victims were aged three, four and five years. Their mother had left them at home alone.

ALBERT LEA MAN ELECTED

E. M. Phillips Is President of the Min- nesota Educational Association.

Minneapolis, Oct. 30.—The annual primary election of the Minnesota Educational association concluded with the following result: President, E.
M. Phillips of Albert Lea; secretary, John M. Guise, St. Paul; W. F. Webster, Minneapolis, the retiring president, becomes vice president under the rules. F. J. Sperry of Mankato, the treasurer, holds over.

Every available seat in the Auditorium was filled, standing room was at a premium and more than 100 teachers waited in the street for a thinning out of the audience at the second general session of the Minnesota Educational association here.

Admittance was denied the general public and a teacher's badge was necessary to pass through the doors, yet the seating capacity of the big hall was insufficient.

The opening address was by Superintendent S. L. Heister of the St. Paul public schools, on "The Lagging Half." His address was along the line of the general theme of the convention, economy in education.

Babe Poisoned by Tablets.

Allison, Ia., Oct. 30.—Finding in a bureau drawer what she thought was little candies, Emice, aged one, daughter of Charles Hyde, ate the contents of a box. The tablets contained arsenic and the babe died before a doctor could be called.

Boomerang Skill.

Imagine hurling a bent stick away from you with all your strength and having it return to the very spot where you are standing. That is what a skilled boomerang thrower can do.
More than this, he may throw the stick so that it will actually fall far behind him although hurled directly in front. The skill of the little brown bushmen, of which we have read so much, is not exaggerated in the least, for the boomerang wielded by an expert is a thing of magic. It will soar through the air like a bird—now high up, now just skimming the surface of the ground, turning in circles, finally falling just where it has been aimed to fall.—St. Nicholas.

Breaking Things.

A certain well known member of congress has a house down in Washington. One of the fixtures of the place is an old negro servant named Sally Ann. In the congressman's presence one Sunday morning she broke a big cut glass dish at the sideboard.

"What have you broken now, you — black mushfinger?" yelled the member, who possesses a very expressive vocabulary.

Sally Ann was quite unnerved, but she replied very humbly: "Tain't de fo'th commandment, bress de Lawd!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Baby Kangaroo.
One of the rarest and most uncanny zoo babies is the kangaroo. It takes a most observant and careful keeper to discover that there is one at all, for it is microscopic when born, being only one inch from the nose to the extreme tip of its little tail. In appearance it resembles an earthworm, and it is four or five months before it is seen of men.

Twitching of the Nerves

Wonderful cure brought about by DR.
A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

It is only by watching the symptoms of nervous exhaustion and applying restorative treatment that you can ever hope to ward off locomotor ataxia and paralysis.

Mr. J. H. Garrison, North Fairfield, Ohio, Route No. 2, writes: "My health failed me and I became a victim of nervous debility. I was weak, nervous and irritable; my arms and legs would jerk and twitch, and as I was 62 years of age did not expect to benefit much by the use of medicine."

"Great was my surprise, however, when I began using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, for it was not long before my nerves were as steady as clockwork and my system began to build up. I cannot begin to express my appreciation for the benefit. It is the best medicine I ever had in the house."

Such cases as this prove the wonderful efficiency of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. They cure in Nature's way by enriching the blood and for this reason their benefits are lasting. 50 cts. a box,

TAMMANY CHIEF ANGERED

Speech by Judge Gaynor Riles Charles F. Murphy.

New York, Oct. 30.—Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany chief, is angry with Judge Gaynor because the latter in a speech Thursday night declared that a hostile board of estimate elected he would resign should he win the mayoralty race. As such action would give the fusionists absolute control of the city should Gaynor win and the balance of the fusion ticket pull through, every effort will be made to compel Gaynor to stick.

A sensation was caused by the publication of a statement in the World, which is supporting Gaynor, quoting D. Clarence Gibbons, the fusion candidate for district attorney in Philadelphia, as declaring that the Republican leaders in that city and Tammany leaders here have arranged an offensive and defensive alliance, whereby a gang of thugs will vote the Republican ticket in the river wards in the Quaker city next Tuesday and then be hurried to this city to vote the straight Tammany ticket.

TRAINS DELAYED BY FREIGHT WRECK

Accident Near Funkley Yesterday Afternoon Knocked Out M. & I. Service

EIGHT CARS IN THE DITCH

Passengers Were Transferred Around the Wreck and all Carried Forward

A freight wreck about half a mile south of Funkley Friday night blocked the tracks for the night and deranged passenger schedules badly. An extra going north was delayed by a broken switch bridge and the engine derailed and eight cars out in the ditch. The accident occurred before the passenger train for the north had arrived and it was unable to get to Funkley. It was necessary to transfer the passengers for the north and south, both around the wreck. The train returned here, reaching Brainerd about 7:45 this morning instead of 1:55. The passengers north bound did not reach International Falls until about 10 o'clock this morning. The day train from Kelliher did not get here until nearly 2 o'clock this afternoon.

HOTEL CLOSED TEMPORARILY

Thomas H. Beare Moving His Furniture Out of the Ransford Hotel and Will Store it

Thos. H. Beare has surrendered his lease of the Ransford hotel and is storing the furniture and will go out of the hotel business for the present. He states that the he had intended to surrender the hotel at the termination of his lease on the 9th of March next and that as it would be six weeks before the hotel building could be put in shape again it would not pay him to continue for the remaining time. He had already made a contract for the lease of a hotel to be erected in Virginia, Minn. to be completed by next July and will move there at that time. He has rented the brick block belonging to James Gardner on South Sixth street and is storing his furniture there. He states that he will rent a house and remain in this city until the hotel in Virginia is ready.

When seen today Mr. Wise stated that so far as he knew Mr. Beare had not thrown up his lease, but he could state that the hotel would not be closed long in any event.

MAY LOSE W. H. STRACHAN

Report that Superintendent of Minnesota & International Will go to Duluth

There is a report current among local business men to the effect that W. H. Strachan, superintendent of the Minnesota & International railroad had been appointed assistant superintendent of the Lake Superior division of the Northern Pacific railway, in charge of the terminals at Duluth and Superior. When asked regarding the matter Mr. Strachan refused to either confirm or deny the rumor, but other railroad men declare it authentic. Mr. Strachan is a thorough and practical railroad man and the Lake Superior division is fortunate to be in the hands of two such men as K. M. Nicoles and W. H. Strachan.

A MUSICAL EVENT
Song Recital by Mrs. Jane Catherwood was a Very Enjoyable Occasion

The song recital by Mrs. Jane Catherwood at Elk's hall last evening is an event in the musical history of Brainerd.

In scanning the press notices the past few days we thought about the nice things had been said, but before Mrs. Catherwood had finished last evening's program we felt that half had never been written.

A pleasing personality is always winning and when we say we find back of the desire to please, a broad education, a desire to impart this knowledge, and the power so to do, we say little to the outside world of what Mrs. Catherwood is capable of in recital.

Mrs. Catherwood gives an idea of the historical setting and tradition or sentiment expressed in her program numbers. This adds much to the educational value, as well as to our enjoyment. Especially are these almost essential to the proper appreciation of those songs in foreign tongue.

From the rendition of Mozart's "Batti Batti" throughout the program to "The Indian Bell Song" from Lakme, seemingly there was every quality of emotion expressed. Mrs. Catherwood's singing led us away from technique, away from the thought of hard study, to live over again "the spring time." She took us close to nature to see the flowers, to hear the birds and to feel human heart throbs. This shows wonderful power of interpretation. Words are inadequate to describe her clear enunciation, purity of tone, and soulful singing.

The following program shows purpose of choice in every number, not so much to extol the voice of the singer as to enlarge the soul of the listener.

"Batti Batti"-----Mozart Frühlingslaube-----Schubert Unter'm Machandelbaum----- Victor Hallaender
Piano Duett—"Marche Hongroise"-----Kowalski Georgia Horn, Teresa Schultz

"Listen to the Voice of Love" (Old English)-----Hook Chantons les Amours de Jean (Old French)----- Jueues Fillettes (Old French)-----
"By Day Amid My Endless Cares" (Old Swedish)-----Folk Songs Dalekarlian Dance (Old Swedish)-----

Piano—"Aase's Death"-----Grieg
"The Birdling"-----Grieg
Jennie Mysen

Synnovs Song-----Kjerulf Boat Song-----Harriet Ware
Spring-----Henschel
Piano—"Scherzo" Opus 31-----Chopin Georgia Horn

Indian Bell Song (Lakme)-----Delibes
Miss Mysen is nearing a desired goal as accompanist. Her aptitude in this role has been enhanced by her careful study while in Chicago a few months last season. Miss Mysen also gave very delicate and pleasing interpretations of Grieg's "Aase's Death" and "The Birdling."

We were glad to hear Miss Horn and Miss Schultz in their four hand study from Kowalski and also to hear Miss Horn in that interpretation of Chopin's "Scherzo" for the piano, all of which were pleasingly rendered.

We hope another season will have a Catherwood recital booked for Brainerd. ***

EAST OAK PAVING IS PROGRESSING

Work Will Probably be Completed From East End of City to Thirteenth Street

ROCK CRUSHING DELAYED WORK Street When Completed Will be a Handsome Driveway and a Credit to the City

If the automobile speed craze strikes Brainerd as it has some other cities it will be necessary to put on a special police with a motorcycle to watch East Oak street when the paving is completed. If there was ever a street that would tempt a motorist to break the speed limits it will be that street. A Dispatch representative took a ride out over it on a bicycle this morning to see how the work of paving is getting along and was surprised at the beauty of the street.

The paving was put in last year 20 feet wide from the old Dodd place to the west side of the old fair grounds. This year the work was commenced at that point and continued from there to Nineteenth street with that width. From that street to Fifteenth, Oak has been paved 40 feet in width and curbed. The street has been graded almost the entire distance to Broadway, and but for delay in getting rock crushed the street would have been completed to Broadway this season. The valley just east of the St. Paul tracks have been filled until the grade of the street is fine and when completed teams will handle the heaviest loads over it with ease. If the weather holds good the curbing will be completed and paving will be completed to Thirteenth street this fall unless the weather changes very much for the worse. The soil used in filling has considerable clay in it and the street will be in much better condition this winter than ever before even if it is not paved.

Street Commissioner Barron is doing a fine job of work there under the supervision of City Engineer Whiteley.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS

Because it's for One Thing Only, and Brainerd People Appreciate This Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.

They cure sick kidneys.

They cure backache, every kidney ill.

Here is Brainerd evidence to prove it.

Charles Ellison, 512 S. Quince St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "My kidneys were disordered for many years and seemed to be gradually growing worse. About a year ago I was seized with a severe pain in the small of my back was forced to stop work. The medicine I took helped me, so that I was able to go out in a few weeks, but the trouble came back at times and caused me to suffer severely. About eight months ago I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply at H. P. Dunn's drug store. The use of a few boxes benefited me in every way and I can now work with ease, having no symptoms of my old complaint. I am confident that Doan's Kidney Pills will live up to representation in all cases of kidney complaint, if taken according to directions."

Definite Location.

Every visitor at the capitol at Harrisburg, Pa., who gets as far as the registration room is expected to write his name in a big book, together with his birthplace and present residence, says the Troy Times. Not long ago, when a crowd of excursionists visited the grounds and buildings, a stout girl started to register.

She paused, pen poised in air, and called out to an elderly lady comfortably seated in a big chair, "Mon, vere vas I borned at?"

"Vat you vant to know dat for?"

"Dis man wants to put it in der big book."

"Ach," answered the mother, "you know vell enough—in der old stone house."

It Was Funny.

"Something very funny happened the other day," said O'Beetie to his friend McFoo. "I was downtown and found myself without car fare. Before I had a chance to worry over the thought of walking a few miles in the hot sun along comes Binker, who writes jokes. I know him very well, and yet I had the nerve to ask him to loan me a quarter. He told me he was glad to accommodate me and handed over the coin."

"Is that all?" asked McFoo.

"It is."

"Well, what's the joke?"

"Why, the funny part is that a man who writes jokes should have a whole quarter with him at one time."—New York Times.

SHARP FIGHT WITH REBELS

Follows Seizure of Arsenal on Island of Salamis.

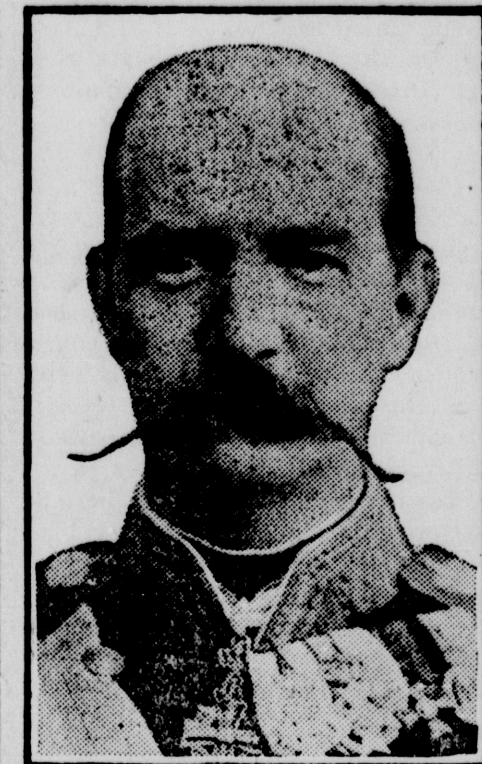

SITUATION IN GREECE ACUTE

Dynasty in Danger of Being Overthrown—Leader of the Revolutionists, Who is Commander of the Submarine and Torpedo Boat Fleets, Demands That He Be Made Minister of Marine.

Athens, Greece, Oct. 30.—Following the seizure of the arsenal on the island of Salamis by Lieutenant Tibaldos and 300 of his followers from the navy a battle that lasted twenty minutes took place.

The government field batteries on the mainland opened fire on Tibaldos and his band, and the rebels courageously returned it. After the firing had ceased the government opened negotiations with the rebels, but whether they will surrender is not known.

Tibaldos, who is commander of the submarine and torpedo boat fleets, demands that he be made minister of marine, and threatens if his wishes are not acceded to to overthrow the government and proclaim himself dictator.

If the fleet supports Tibaldos it is believed the reigning dynasty will be overthrown.

The cause of the naval revolt in Greece is to be found probably in the recent failure of the Greek cause in Crete when the powers, upon Turkey's protest, removed the Hellenic flag, which had been hoisted at Canea.

WOMAN INSTANTLY KILLED

Her Husband Fatally Injured by a Train.

Lake City, Minn., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Walter McNallan, seventy years old, of Kellogg, Minn., was cut in two and instantly killed, and her husband is dying, following an unsuccessful attempt to cross the St. Paul railroad tracks before the eastbound passenger train.

They had been spending the day in the city on business and were intending to take the train that killed them to their home. The train was pulling into the station four minutes ahead of time.

In crossing the tracks before the oncoming locomotive Mrs. McNallan stumbled and fell. Mr. McNallan stopped to assist her. The engine was upon them immediately. The wheels passed over Mrs. McNallan's body and cut her in two. The pilot hit Mr. McNallan and threw him a considerable distance, from which he sustained internal injuries and fractures. Mrs. McNallan was picked up dead; her husband was placed aboard a train and hurried to the hospital at Wabasha, Minn., where he is believed to be dying.

Mr. McNallan is an old soldier and one of the prominent men of this section, where he has lived for many years.

MUST NOT MENTION NAME

Spanish Jails Crowded With Persons Who Talked of Ferrer.

Barcelona, via Cerebere, Oct. 30.—As the results of the efforts of the government to wipe out the memory of Francisco Ferrer from the minds of the people, the jails today are crowded with persons arrested for the bare mention of the dead professor's name. The prisoners are held as suspicious characters and not on the specific accusations that they uttered the name "Ferrer." The authorities are admittedly afraid that the people will make a martyr of the late agitator, who promises to remain a more serious menace to Spain dead than alive.

Two Centenaries Dead.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Mrs. Amelia Muckle, 104 years old, and Mrs. Antonio Spadinski, 102 years old, both residents of Chicago for many years died here of "old age."

NOT SEEKING SENATORSHIP

Governor Burke of North Dakota Will Keep His Present Job.

Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 30.—John Burke, governor of North Dakota, holds the key to the situation arising out of the death of Senator M. N. Johnson. In his office the governor made it plain, both by word and manner, that he was the one who would do the appointing.

"I have been tendered much advice since the seat became vacant," said he, "but I doubt if all my advisers would be so positive in their views if the actual responsibility rested upon them. Whatever I may do in this matter, I must answer for; and, since I am the one responsible, I prefer to be the real author of the appointment."

"I will not now, or at any time, say whom I will appoint. When my decision is reached, which probably will be next week, I shall make the appointment—and then announce it."

On the rumored possibility that he might maneuver for the senatorship, Governor Burke was emphatic.

"There has been," he said, "some question raised as to whether or not I am eligible for a seat in the United States senate at this time; some suggestion that our state constitution may bar me from that office. All this talk is unnecessary."

"The people of this state have elected me governor for a fixed term, and I shall in any case respect their decree and complete that term."

CHICAGO MAN MENTIONED

C. W. Kohlsaat May Be Named as Minister to China.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Charles W. Kohlsaat of Chicago is being considered by President Taft in connection with the Chinese mission, according to the Washington Times.

"Nothing regarding it could be learned at the state department," says the Times, "but it is known that he is being considered by the administration as extremely suitable for the mission, which is regarded as the most important diplomatic post under the United States government."

"Charles W. Kohlsaat is at present director general of the American National Export expositions in South America. His offices are in the Union Trust building here. He was director general of the Jamestown exposition and foreign commissioner of the St. Louis and Portland expositions. He has traveled all around the world, and has spent much time in the Orient familiarizing himself with the situation in the Far East."

The Times adds that Mr. Kohlsaat refuses to discuss the use of his name in connection with the mission.

CONDEMNS SLAYER OF ITO

President Taft Sends Message of Sympathy to the Mikado.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The following is the text of a message sent by President Taft to the emperor of Japan, expressive of his sorrow at the death of Prince Ito:

"I extend to your majesty and to the Japanese people my profound sympathy in the great loss sustained by you in the death of Prince Ito. I deeply honor the honor of his friendship."

"I cannot too strongly condemn the wickedness of his murderers."

New Interurban Line Assured.

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 30.—According to an announcement made by President W. J. Ferris of La Crosse Water Power company, the construction of the interurban railroad between Winona and La Crosse will be started early next spring. Mr. Ferris says the money required, approximately $1,000,000, is now available.

TRIED REMEDY FOR THE GRIP.

PE-RU-NA For COUGHS AND COLDS

Foiled.

A man met a doctor he knew one morning, and, being one type of grafter, he thought to work him for a free prescription. After some small talk he asked quite incidentally:

"Doctor, what would you give for a sore throat?"

"Nothing," replied the doctor promptly, for he knew his man. "I don't want a sore throat."—Philadelphia Record.
